

Larry King

Advisory Board Member

Since 2018

Area of Expertise

Larry King has over 45 years of experience in architecture, strategic design, planning, and corporate general management. He is a comprehensive resource for the structuring and implementation of long-term occupancy strategies as well as design solutions requiring sensitivity to client goals.

Recently retiring after 25 years from IA Interior Architects, he founded the Chicago and other IA offices and has been Managing Principal of the New York and Chicago offices prior to his relocation to the Denver office as Managing Principal and the global Client Services Team. Founded in 1985, IA is the largest global provider of architectural services focused on the interior architecture and workplace with 21 offices worldwide.

During his 16 years of practice in Denver during the 1970's and 1980's he was a board member of the Denver Partnership, DURA (Denver Urban & Renewal Authority), Denver Center for Performing Arts, The Denver Club, and Colorado Ballet.

A graduate of Kansas State University, he is NCARB-certified and a registered architect in 33 states. He is a participating member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) and past Vice President of the Denver Chapter, Urban Land Institute (ULI) Colorado Chapter, a member of International Facilities Managers Association (IFMA), and the Economic Club of Chicago. As a member of NAIOP, he was a global award winner of the Office Building of the Future competition which is now a published book. He is the past Illinois State Chairman and National Board of Directors of the Council of Growing Companies (CGC), and a past board member of the University Club and the Tower Club of Chicago, Heartland Alliance, and Harrington College of Design. He was recently honored as a Fellow and Distinguished Alumni of Kansas State University and was a board member of Kansas State University Foundation, the College of Architecture, Denver Art Museum Design Council, Corenet Colorado Chapter, and a frequent speaker and panelist.

Business Background

Prior to joining IA, Larry worked for sixteen years with the global architecture firm Gensler, where he served as Managing Principal of the Denver office and member of the firm's Management Committee. Following he was Chief Executive Officer for the national offices of a Fortune 50 financial services company and its subsidiary PHH Environments, and a partner in the international architectural and engineering firm of Perkins & Will.
